"Women In A Woman's Profession: Strategies" is the title of the ALA Social Responsibilities Round Table sponsored 1974 preconference on women in librarianship.

The conference is scheduled for July 5 and 6 at Douglas College of Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey.

This is a working conference by, for, and about women in librarianship. It will focus on the problem of being the majority in a profession in which men hold most of the positions of influence, power and authority. The first session will be devoted to information on problems in librarianship. The second day will consist of workshops to plan future and continuing action.

Advance registration is required and space is limited to 200. The cost is $60.00 and includes three nights (July 4, 5, 6), lodging and all meals.

For further information and registration contact Betty-Carol Sellen, Brooklyn College Library, Brooklyn, New York 11210. Telephone AC212-780-5335.
