Report *
The Library Resources and Technical Services (LRTS) Editorial Board met during the 2017 ALA Midwinter Meeting on Sunday, February 11. The Editor discussed her report, including the status of submissions for the previous year as well as submissions for 2018. She provided a comparison of previous years with this time period, plus a comparison of acceptance rates for the last three years, and receipt of manuscripts by subject area.

LRTS Book Review Editor Elyssa Gould and ALCTS News Editor Chelcie Rowell gave reports on their respective areas.

Weber and Morris led a discussion on the planned transition of the current journal hosting system to another.

Ideas for encouraging submissions and possible submissions that had been solicited were discussed.
