Staff Association Activities

At a meeting on April 1 of the membership of the ALA Headquarters Staff Association, it was voted to make certain changes in the official statement of the ALA Headquarters Staff Association Merit Award. The changes were made as a result of criticisms during past elections, that the Staff was too large for the award to be truly a merit award. In addition, the award has been made even more attractive by providing the winner a ticket to any two programs he would like to attend. This will ensure that per diem restrictions won't prevent him from attending an event of particular interest to him. Thus, the meeting voted:

Change the name of the Headquarters Staff Association Merit Award to Headquarters Staff Association Conference Representative Award.

Change the stated purposes of the award to read,

1. To provide an opportunity to attend the Annual Conference to a staff member who would not normally attend, and in so doing, provide the chance to learn more about the ALA and to gain a deeper understanding of the role he plays in relationship to the total effort of the ALA.
2. To stimulate an increased interest on the part of the staff in the overall work of the ALA.
3. To strengthen esprit de corps of the Headquarters Staff.

Change the requirement for eligibility to read:

The recipient must be a member of the ALA Headquarters Staff Association, must have been employed full-time by the American Library Association for five years or more (not necessarily consecutive), would not ordinarily attend the ALA Annual Conference as part of his duties, or in any other capacity, and shall have expressed an interest in attending. No one may receive the grant more than once.

Adopt the policy that:

"The Staff Association will pay $150.00 toward the winner's expenses, and in addition, will pay for admission to any two programs of his choice for which there is a charge, (other than the President's Banquet for which a ticket is provided as part of the award)."

Plans for this year's election of the Headquarters Staff Association Conference Representative Award are under way, and balloting will take place soon. Meanwhile, check the Staff Bulletin Board for biographies of staffers eligible for the award, and for further information.

ALA Executive Board to Consider Staff Association Request

A request that a recommendation regarding membership in ALA for staff members be placed on the docket for the ALA Executive Board meeting April 30 - May 2, was made by the Executive Committee of the Headquarters Staff Association on April 4.

The recommendation appears on the docket as follows:

WHEREAS an ALA staff member who joins ALA is not entitled to

1. serve on committees
2. hold elective office
3. campaign for candidates running for office
4. attend any ALA conference for personal benefit and career development
5. participate in ALA membership and Council meetings as an individual member, and

WHEREAS an ALA staff member joining ALA must pay the same personal membership dues as all other ALA members even though he is not entitled to the same privileges,

THEREFORE, the Executive Committee of the Headquarters Staff Association recommends that an ALA staff member be granted free membership in ALA on the first anniversary of his employment on written request to the office so designated by the Executive Board.

The intention of this recommendation is to encourage the administration to offer a benefit to staff in compensation for the limitation of membership privileges; to stimulate greater interest in the work of ALA by staff members; and to make membership in ALA more readily accessible to staff members.

This recommendation would not preclude librarians on the ALA staff from paying personal membership dues to ALA. However, all staff members would have the option of requesting free membership in ALA.

FAREWELL PARTIES

A time to laugh and a time to cry were the farewell parties given for the familiar and beloved staff members at ALA Headquarters, Judy Andrewnovitz and Mrs. Blanche Potter.

In early February Blanche--for many years the Personnel Office's answer to Greer Garson, Inger Stevens, Mrs. Olsen and Billie Burke when its digs were on the fifth floor, and most recently while Mr. Swanson's secretary in Purchasing--left ALA for the lure of the admen. She is now working for the public relations office of Fensholt Advertising, a few scenic blocks away from 50 East Huron Street. Anytime you want a breath of that eye-batting vitality, you can call Blanche at 944-0550.

Given at the Rush Street annex (one-time Victorian mansion with mitred windows et al), enhancing the glamour of the Potter soiree were the embellishments of rented gold candelabra and borrowed crystal punch bowls, with lemon leaves and ferns artfully decorating the walls and aisles. Ouida Hunter of the Accounting Department made like a Life photographer all the while, arresting the action of munching, chortling faces on 35mm colored slides, no less.

Most memorable for all present, though, were probably the presentation made to Blanche by her boss, Carl Swanson, and the warm and gracious words of appreciation expressed for all of us by Mr. Clift. If any of you were not present to behold Mr. Swanson's studied sobriety as read from the Potter's Personal Policy and Procedure Manual he composed and painstakingly arranged in a formidable looking booklet, then you missed one of the most amusing boss's-eye-view of enforced coexistence with a "girl friday" ever given.

No less festive was the glowing departure of Judy Andrewnovitz of the Membership Records staff whose leaving for her meant the baby soon to join her world, which, from now on, she insists will be a purely personal one. During her pregnancy Judy's bowling score improved so appreciably she was near ready for tournament competition. Explanation: "Now I have help," she claimed. Mrs. Peggy Blankley and Ray Granberg took part in the leave-taking ceremonies, expressing their gratitude for her five years of dependable dedication and good-natured cooperation as a fellow worker. Hors d'oeuvres were homemade at this one--and you could tell! Again, thanks to the truly ingenious and attentive planning, not to mention sheer labor, of the Social Committee headed by Robert Case.

AND - ANOTHER PARTY

April 15 was finally acknowledged as universal "torture time" by a formal Internal Revenue Extravaganza staged by the Social Committee. Complete with play money strung from the staff lounge ceiling, coolie hats brimmed over with fortune cookies and supersized sugar cookies were offered as the most edible currency around, with "5¢" and "10¢" drawn in green decorator icing atop each one. An old world market basket deliberately was placed in the center of the coffee table where Mr. Gaertner sat, and soon it was filled with hundreds and thousands of dollars as staff members--some sheepish, some hilarious--dropped off their tax return surplus on leaving the party. As head of Fiscal Services, Mr. Gaertner was advised by the Staff Association that in his future recommendations to the ALA Budget Committee, he might best acquire money by the pound at F.W. Woolworth's (and give up at Lake Shore National) as a means to pad the ALA coffers.

NEW POSITION

Agnes Reagan assumed the primary staff responsibility for the ALA Committee on Accreditation in the Office for Library Education. The position is a new one, which has been made possible by a three-year grant from the H.W. Wilson Foundation, Inc. Miss Reagan will continue to serve as Executive Secretary of LED. To make possible the assumption of the duties connected with accreditation, the position of Assistant Executive Secretary to LED has been created.

NEW OFFICES

The Fifth Floor would like to welcome Mrs. Pauline Love and Miss Grace Roberts to their new office. Miss Roberts, speaking for herself and Mrs. Love, said they are both very happy with their new arrangement.

SICK BAY

Mary Hanchar's (Library) mother suffered heart failure and is under care at Grant Hospital.

ANIMALS

FREE .... 3 kittens, housebroken, born February 25. Available now. Call Holly Campbell, ext. 316.

Ziggy, the largest Indian (bull) elephant in captivity, lives in the pachyderm building at Brookfield Zoo. Because he once attacked a trainer in 1941, he has been confined during the day to a three-foot chain for the past 27 years. Fifty-two years old, 10' 4" tall and weighing six tons, this rogue elephant once performed in the Florenz Ziegfield Follies by playing the tune, "Yes Sir, That's My Baby" on an harmonica. Although he is not mistreated, Ziggy is ignored. He does receive a ton of hay a week and an occasional shower. His skin is mangy and his ears are frayed, possibly due to his advancing age. Because of his confinement, Ziggy cannot turn and face his admiring audiences.

Nearly $100,000 is needed to provide Ziggy and his elephant peers at Brookfield Zoo with more spacious quarters and romping space on the outside.

SEND ALL CHECKS, MONEY ORDERS, OR HARD CASH IN ANY AMOUNT TO:

"FOR ZIGGY"
DEVELOPMENT OFFICE
BROOKFIELD ZOO
BROOKFIELD, ILLINOIS 60513

(BE SURE TO STATE "FOR ZIGGY" ON CHECK, MONEY ORDER AND ENVELOPE)

If you would like to make a very small contribution, you can contact Cosette Kies in the Office for Recruitment, and add some of your spare change to her elephant bank. Cosette Kies, in charge of a "Ziggy" fund collected $5.00. The money has already been forwarded, but Ziggy needs more!

CAUSES CELEBRÉ

Congratulations to Robert Hershman (Assistant Sales and Promotion Manager) who will be married on May 24 to Carol Ann Williams. They plan to honeymoon at Galveston Island, Texas and, upon their return June 1 will live in Addison, Illinois.

Edna Booze (Adult Book Reviewer, Booklist) became engaged to Frederick Kaempfer, a school teacher in Villa Park. Their wedding date is set for June 21 in Elmhurst, Illinois.

Best wishes to Marylin Davis Rogers (LTP) and her new husband, Elmer-Dion Rogers. Marylin and Elmer-Dion were married Saturday, April 19, at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses. A maid of honor, attired in blue, and five bridesmaids, attired in yellow, attended the bride. Marylin's little sister was one of the bridesmaids.

Judy Krug reports that she ordered a daughter that looks just like her. Well, that daughter has arrived--but it's still a bit too early to tell who she looks like. Michelle Lynn was born Monday, April 7th, at 9:00 a.m., and weighed in at 7 pounds, 2 ounces.

Betsy Hearne, former Booklist children's books reviewer, had a baby girl, Joanna Megan, February 5. She weighed 9 pounds, 4 ounces.

Miss Leta Fisher, who is working part-time in the Office for Recruitment was engaged to Eric Dahlburg on March 16. Eric has been stationed at Great Lakes where he is serving in the Reserves; and Leta is a senior at Moody Bible Institute. Both Eric and Leta are from Colorado, and they deserve the best of luck.

VACATION!

Adeline Edahl (Library) is basking in the sun and fishing in her spare time in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Maybe she can bring some of that wonderful sun up Chicago way.

NEW EMPLOYEES

Miss Mary Howson, Booklist Secretary, began her new job on April 3. She is a graduate of Madonna High School. Mary's hobby is music; she plays the piano.

Delores Vaughan has been appointed Assistant Executive Secretary to LED. Miss Vaughan was a high school teacher before obtaining her M.A. at the University of Chicago Graduate Library School, and is now working on her doctorate. Miss Vaughan enjoys teaching summer sessions in library schools, having taught at Indiana State University (Terre Haute) and the University of Iowa. This summer she will be teaching at the University of Texas. Among her personal hobbies, are hiking, reading and sewing.

We extend a warm welcome to Mr. Donald Trottier in his new position as Executive Secretary of ALTA.

DISPLAY CASE

The Membership Promotion Office officially will unveil a new brochure exhibits rack to members and nonmembers alike in the Membership Committee booth at the Atlantic City annual conference. As a traveling Information Center, which also will be used at regional meetings, the 42" high by 12½" deep by 42½" wide plastic display case with pedestal holds membership applications and promotion brochures in thirty separate cubicles. Magazines, newsletters, and other over-sized promotional material can be displayed if dividers are removed.

Come take a peek at this all-in-one promotion purveyor on the fifth floor before it is relegated to the warehouse prior to annual conference.

ART SHOW

Signs of early spring are clear to all at ALA Headquarters as preparations begin for the first annual "May Art Show." Creative works from oil painting to needlework will be on display. Formal opening of the exhibition will be May 1. Don't forget that any member of the staff who would like to place examples of his art and handworks in the exhibit should complete the entry form recently distributed by Robert Case, Social Committee chairman. Easter eggs will only be accepted if emptied of their contents.

Schedule of films Showings updated to April 3.

Day	Date	Film Title
Wednesday	April 9	Sudden Summer: BOAC color film. British National Industrial Film Board. Visit Cairo's Arab streets, Iran's Mosques, Lebanon's mountains. See jugglers, gymnasts, and belly dancers.
Wednesday	April 16	Slide films of Staff Association parties and some of the San Francisco Annual Conference. These pictures were taken by Ouida Hunter of the Accounting Department and will be shown by her with appropriate narration. Come and see this one, if you don't see yourself you'll see many of your friends.
Wednesday	April 23	Rabbit Hill (Part 1) color 33 Minutes. Produced by NBC. A Children's film which has been enjoyed by adults.
Wednesday	May 7	Rabbit Hill ( Part II )
Wednesday	May 14	Spud's Summer. Produced by CBS News. This film recounts the feelings and experience of a six-year old boy from Harlem making his first visit to the country. Spud, who narrates the film, moves trustful and confiding from the sordid tragedy of slum life in New York ghetto to the wholesome domesticity of farm life in Chester County Pa. This film won the International Award in 1966 for the best TV documentary of the year.
Wednesday	May 21	Geology of Yellowstone (15 minutes color) This film is a conducted tour of Yellowstone filmed with attention to those things that the visitor to Yellowstone wants to see, but with the added merit of a vocal guide who describes the scenes. Those who have been to Yellowstone know how good this film will be, if you have never been to Yellowstone, you will be amazed at its beauty. It is probably the most underrated sight in the United States.

Films will be shown twice on days indicated at 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m.

There are additional films American Image in two parts. The works of various artists telling the entire story of this nation-- the story of politics and society, good and bad.

Legacy of Anne Frank

Which we will show if the season permits and members of the staff would like to to them.
