Mercedes Mendoza of College Park, Maryland, was presented the $3,000 1979 Louise Giles Minority Scholarship on June 25, during the Annual Conference of the American Library Association in Dallas.

Ms. Mendoza is a native of Havana, Cuba. She graduated from the University of Maryland with a B.A. in Spanish Language and Literature and a minor in comparative literature.

She worked as a student assistant in the University of Maryland library; in the loan department, serials department, and the engineering and physical science library. At present, she is the full-time assistant head to the periodicals/microforms room, where she supervises student assistants and is responsible for the unbound periodical collection and maintenance of the kardex records.

Ms. Mendoza will be attending the Catholic University of America, Graduate Department of Library and Information Science for a master's degree in library science.

The ALA Scholarship program is financed through an annual $6,000 donation from the Xerox Publishing Division and individual contributions.
