LITA Institutes, "Closing the Catalog," Cassettes Available

In response to many requests, the Library and Information Technology Association of ALA has made available the talks given at the LITA institutes on "Closing the Catalog" held in New Orleans on November 28-30, 1978 and in San Francisco on February 14-16, 1979.

The papers are available on audio cassette, unedited and exactly as taped at the San Francisco institute (including an additional paper heard in New Orleans.) The proceedings will be published in book form at a later date by Oryx Press of Phoenix, Arizona.

A full set of 15 cassettes is priced at $55.00. Individual cassette prices depend on the length of the cassette concerned and are as follows: 60 min. cassette - $4.00; 90 min. cassette - $4.50. LITA members and institute registrants receive a 10% discount on any single cassette purchased or on the purchase of a full set of cassettes.

The speakers and their topics are as follows:

Seymour Lubetzky        "Perspectives"        60 min.
Paul Fasana             Keynote Presentation  90 min.
Joseph Rosenthal        "Planning for the Closing"  90 min.
Frederick Kilgour       "The Impact of AACR II on the Economic Viability of Libraries" (presented at the New Orleans Institute)  90 min.
