FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 1978

Kenneth D. Shearer is the new editor of Public Libraries, the quarterly journal of the Public Library Association, a division of the American Library Association.

Mr. Shearer, who takes over as editor with the fall 1978 issue, succeeds Nancy Doyle Bolt.

A professor at the School of Library Science, North Carolina Central University in Durham, Mr. Shearer's specialties are public librarianship and research methods.

Before joining the faculty of Carolina Central University, he was an assistant branch head of the Jefferson branch library, Detroit Public Library.

Mr. Shearer's Ph.D. and M.L.S. are both from the Graduate School of Library Service, Rutgers University.
