TO: Macmillan Task Force
FROM: Floyd C. Dickman
RE: Our charge
DATE: June 7, 1994

First of all I apologize for not contacting you sooner with news about our charge and its future.

As you all know Macmillan was bought out by Paramount. Lots of changes have been made and as I understand are still being made. Michael Eisenberg who had originally suggested the award has left the company.

Knowing these facts, shortly after mid-winter, I questioned Susan Roman about the status of the award. I told her that until I heard from her whether it was still on I could not expect the Task Force to continue to put work into the task if there was a possibility that it would not be carried out by Macmillan.

To date I still do not have a definitive answer.

As soon as I receive information I will pass it on to you.

Hope to see you in Miami.
