S BOARD

Annual Conference development of a partnership with the other am planning via an electronic database on the staffing of school media centers ion Committee.
ion support for federal legislative action and bisexuals.
ion the Government Printing Office

it the ALSC new members by name and members without names.
ference focusing on informational books, posed by Mary Jane Anderson thanking 93 National Reading Program distribu tor to convey the ALSC Board’s en-ume only) of the following programs in School Centers: Filling an Urgent Need."

Table, "For Sex, See Librarian."

and Be Heard: Getting More Women ord Project Task Force and urged the the recommendations contained in the Task Force with thanks from the Board, ocation for its assistance and help to this

members to a joint ALSC/REFORMA the establishment of a children’s r the Organization and Bylaws Com-

‘discussion group’ in order to make the posed bylaws changes on the 1993 ballot: members to media evaluation committees; le by the president of ALSC; all other

e the spring and; the spring committee

LSG vice-president/president-elect.

ad hoc committee to consider the issue of the progress of the ALA self-study, es for review and action the proposed nominations for the 1994 ALA Board served in the Nominating Committee to

C. Tarsitano, chair; Perkin; and Carol Rohrer. terdivisional Committee and replaced tive activities (e.g., column exchange,

- Approved the establishment of an interdivisional ALSC/PLA Committee on

- Approved the establishment of an ALSC/PLA interdivisional task force, Public Library Services for Children—Policy Statement Task Force, to de-

- Approved the following recommendations of the Organization and Bylaws Committee: increasing the membership of the Selection of Books and Mat-

- Approved the following awards:

1993 Newbery Medal: Cynthia Rylant for Missing May

1993 Newbery Honor Books: The Dark-Thirty: Southern Tales of the Supernatural, by Patricia C. McKissack; Somewhere in the Darkness, by Walter Dean

1993 Caldecott Medal: Emily Arnold McCully for Mirette on the High Wire

1993 Caldecott Honor Books: Seven Blind Mice, written and illustrated by Ed Young; The Stinky Cheese Man & Other Fairly Stupid Tales, illustrated by Lane Smith and written by Jon Scieszka; and Working Cotton, illustrated by Carole Byard and written by Shirley Anne Williams

1993 ALSC Distinguished Service Award: Augusta Baker, librarian, storyteller, teacher, and author

1993 Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Children’s Video: John

Kelly and Gary Soto for The Pool Party