Are we ready? Try us and see!

1. Not only our younger members can't afford to buy tickets to the Newbery-Caldecott dinner, many older members and some publishers object to the price.
2. The banquet isn't worth the time and money spent on it. Friends usually go together and don't meet new members.
3. Amen!
4. I would vote for an auditorium that would seat every one who had bought a ticket. The tickets would be sold in advance with a cut-off date. The program would start at 7:30 or 8 p.m. and the minimal price might be $10.00

Let's have it fixed by 1981 when I think ALA will be coming to San Francisco.

Cordially yours,

Gladys Conklin
