Dear Mrs. Sutherland:

I support your efforts to supplant the Newbery-Caldecott Banquet with a more economical format. A simple awards presentation in an auditorium would seem to be more practical. The presentation of awards and acceptance speeches are the essential element. A formal presentation sans banquet would be more dignified and, more important, would allow more people who are interested in children's books and authors to attend.

The best of luck with your effort. Please let me know if I can be of help.

Sincerely,

Elaine Goley
