Dear Zena,

I hadn't given opinions on the WC Banquet simply because I don't really know what else to propose

I don't think the cost is the real problem. People can come just for the speech and reception. I agree that it's a huge affair; I don't know how we could limit it, however. Maybe we could put AHSC members closer to the front? On the other hand, it may be the only time during the year other AHA members think of children's books.

I'm not for just a presentational program; people wander in + out; the front is empty, the back filled. The sense of occasion seems lost and we'll not have as large a group

So you see - no real suggestion.
I guess I'm for the status quo done with more attention to AHS member

I'm not coming to Dallas - too much else at the moment. Have a good time!

Sincerely,
Rosemary

Weber.
