N-C Dinner

March 27th 1979

I enjoy the N/C banquet

It is the only truly festive occasion left on my calendar.

It is a good thing that outside people attend. It makes ALSC and children's books visible to the rest of the world.

Re: Cost and staff time

After you've spent money in travel, lodging and registration you might as well spend an extra amount and get something memorable. Charge an extra dollar and hire someone to help on the dinner.

P.S. I can talk big because the chances of me being on a local arrangement committee are a million to one. — unless Portland, Oregon bills more hotels.

P.S.2. Bet you don't get 1000+ people to attend any "alternative"

P.S.3 I like the newsletter — lots of gossip
