Dear Zena:

As I've said to you ad nauseam, the idea of a program meeting rather than a Newbery-Caldecott Dinner seems to me to make complete and wonderful sense. Everyone could come, everyone could hear, everyone could see--and the speeches, on which the author and artist has spent so much time and thought would be the reason for the meeting, rather than an appendage. Your motion had, and has, my complete support!

I will be glad to see you in June! Which is our day?

Love,

Sura
