

Dear Mrs. Sutherland,

I like the present format of the Newbery-Caldecott Awards Banquet. But if a majority of ALSC members object to the cost of the dinner, perhaps there could be a simpler program. I would definitely want to keep the tradition of speeches by the winners and also the opportunity for ALSC members to talk with the winners afterward.

Julie Lockwood