Selected Films for Young Adults is an annual, annotated list of 16mm films recommended for use with young adults. It is compiled by the members of the Media Selection and Usage Committee, Young Adult Services Division, American Library Association.

The films, all released in the United States during 1975 or 1976 were selected from titles nominated by people who work with young adults: school and public librarians and audiovisual specialists across the country. They were chosen after viewing, on the basis of young adult appeal, but each reviewer and committee member also took into consideration the technical quality, subject content and utilization with different kind of audiences.

The 1977 list includes: Double Talk - Learning Corporation of America; Godfather Comes To Sixth Street - Mark Kitchell; Just Lather, That's All - Learning Corporation of America; King of the Hill - The National Film Board of Canada; Magic Rolling Board - Pyramid Films; Man: The Incredible Machine - National Geographic Society; Model Railroading Unlimited - Liberty Pictures; Never Give Up--IMOGEN Cunningham - Phoenix Films; Pysanda: The Ukrainian Easter Egg -
