From: Peggy Barber, Director
Public Information Office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE September 1977

A limited-edition cassette of the 1977 Caldecott and Newbery Medal acceptance speeches is being made available this year by Weston Woods in conjunction with the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC), a division of the American Library Association.

The speeches were presented at the Newbery-Caldecott banquet on June 18, 1977 in Detroit.

Side one contains the address given by Leo and Diane Dillon, whose illustrations for ASHANTI TO ZULU: AFRICAN TRADITIONS, won them their second consecutive Caldecott Medal for the most distinguished American picture book for children. On side two of the cassette is the stirring speech presented by Mildred D. Taylor, recipient of the 1976 Newbery Medal for ROLL OF THUNDER, HEAR MY CRY, judged the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children published last year. Both award books were published by The Dial Press.

The Newbery-Caldecott cassettes are available for $5 each from: Weston Woods, Weston, CT 06883.

Proceeds from the sale of cassettes will assist in the support of ALSC media evaluation activities.

- more -
Reprints of the speeches are available for 75 cents, prepaid, from ALSC, American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611. Quantity prices will be quoted on request.

The speeches were published in the summer 1977 issue of Top of the News.

A limited-edition cassette of the 1977 Caldecott and Newbery Medal acceptance speeches is being made available this year by Weston Woods in conjunction with the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC), a division of the American Library Association.

The speeches were presented at the Newbery-Caldecott banquet on June 18, 1977 in Detroit.

Side one contains the address given by Leo and Diane Dillon, whose illustrations for ASHANTI TO INDI: AFRICAN TRADITIONS, won them their second consecutive Caldecott Medal for the most distinguished American picture book for children. On side two of the cassette is the stirring speech presented by Mildred D. Taylor, recipient of the 1976 Newbery Medal for ROLL OF THUNDER, HEAR MY CRY, judged the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children published last year. Both sound books were published by The Dial Press.

The Newbery-Caldecott cassettes are available for $5 each from Weston Woods, Weston, CT 06883.

Proceeds from the sale of cassettes will assist in the support of ALSC media evaluation activities.