FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 1977

Help is now available for people planning the statewide conferences which will precede the White House Conference on Libraries and Information Service (scheduled for September 1979).

The American Library Trustee Association (ALTA), a division of ALA, has just published a 3rd edition of Guidelines for Holding a Governor's Conference on Libraries: A Step-by-Step How to Do It Manual by Minnie Lou Lynch. Although the upcoming state meetings may differ somewhat from the governor's conferences, much of what was learned from those meetings during the past 20 years can be used planning the Pre-White House conferences.

Minnie Lou Lynch is a past president of ALTA. She has participated in many governor's conferences and has worked closely for many years with ALTA's Governor's Conference Committee. Single copies of the Guidelines are available from ALTA for $2.50 (11-25 copies are $2.25 each; 26-50 copies are $2.00 each). Please send check, payable to the ALA to:
