

News Release: American Library Association

Public Information Office
American Library Association
50 East Huron Street
Chicago, Illinois 60611
312 944-6780

From: Peggy Barber, Director
Public Information Office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE May 1976

The ASLA Report on Interlibrary Cooperation--the first comprehensive survey identifying and documenting interlibrary cooperation in each of the fifty states and U.S. territories--is now available for ordering, at a special prepublication price.

Compiled and edited by the Interlibrary Cooperation Subcommittee of the Association of State Library Agencies, The ASLA Report is arranged by state and territory. This valuable reference work contains information on:

- state level organizations responsible for interlibrary cooperation activities,
- single and multi-type library systems, networks, and consortia responsible for interlibrary cooperation activities,
- funding patterns by state and territorial library agencies for interlibrary cooperation functions,
- communication devices and network hardware,
- machine readable information data bases,
- interlibrary services to special user groups,
- legal bases and barriers for multi-type library cooperation.

In addition, a matrix listing the number of U.S. libraries by type appears in the appendices.

The ASLA Report will complement the 1975 edition of The State Library Agencies: A Survey Project Report, compiled and edited by Donald B. Simpson.

The ASLA Report is available Now on a prepaid basis at the special prepublication price of $10 per copy (until July 1, 1976). The regular price thereafter is $12.50 per copy.

News Release: American Library Association

add 1. The ASEA Report

To order your copy(s), send checks made payable to the Association of State Library Agencies to:

From: Peggy Barb
Public Info
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MAY 1978

Mary R. Power
Executive Secretary
Association of State Library Agencies
50 East Huron Street
Chicago, IL 60611.

- 30 -

The ASEA Report on Interlibrary Cooperation--the first comprehensive survey identifying and documenting interlibrary cooperation in each of the fifty states and U.S. territories--is now available for ordering, at a special prepublication price.

Compiled and edited by the Interlibrary Cooperation Subcommittee of the Association of State Library Agencies, The ASEA Report is arranged by state and territory. This valuable reference work contains information on:

- state level organizations responsible for interlibrary cooperation activities,
- single and multi-type library systems, networks, and consortia responsible for interlibrary cooperation activities,
- funding patterns by state and territorial library agencies for interlibrary cooperation functions,
- communication devices and network hardware,
- machine readable information data bases,
- interlibrary services to special user groups,
- legal bases and barriers for multi-type library cooperation.

In addition, a matrix listing the number of U.S. libraries by type appears in the appendices.

The ASEA Report will complement the 1975 edition of The State Library Agencies: A Survey Project Report, compiled and edited by Donald B. Simpson.

The ASEA Report is available now on a prepaid basis at the special prepublication price of $10 per copy (until July 1, 1978). The regular price thereafter is $12.50 per copy.