FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 1975

Carol Felsenthal has been appointed professional assistant to the American Library Association's Public Information Office, according to a recent announcement by Robert Wedgeworth, ALA's Executive Director.

Mrs. Felsenthal is an honors graduate of the University of Illinois and earned a Master's degree in English Language and Literature from Boston College. She comes to ALA from her position as Editor-in-Chief, Chicago Life Magazine. Her experience also includes staff writer and reporter for the Pioneer Press, editor of the Bulletin of Bibliography and Magazine Notes published by F.W. Faxon Company, Inc., and a number of free lance projects such as book reviews for the Baltimore Sun and Chicago Sun-Times.

Mrs. Felsenthal joined the American Library Association staff on November 3, 1975.
