FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MICROFORM/SERIAL EXCHANGE

Librarians are reminded of previous warnings issued concerning the practice of exchanging serials for microforms. Not all such proposals are without merit, but there have been sufficient numbers of cases where libraries have suffered severe losses through such practice to warrant a close examination by legal counsel of any proposal before entering any agreement. Any librarian asked to entertain such a proposal is strongly advised to consult three articles:

If after reading these articles, you still wish to have further consultation, please get in touch with Murray S. Martin, 505C Pattee Library, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania 16802. Telephone AC814-865-0401.
