Andrew N. deHeer, Director of the Research Library on African Affairs in Accra, Ghana, will lecture in more than fifteen library education programs in the U.S. and Canada between October 20 and November 15. His tour has been arranged through the Library Education Division of the American Library Association, and its International Library Education Committee chaired by Guy Marco, Dean, School of Library Science, Kent State University.

Mr. deHeer's lectures will relate to the topic Progress and Problems of West African Libraries. He directs a library which serves as the national library of Ghana, although it includes all of Africa in its scope. A. N. deHeer has been a major figure in Ghana's successful library development. He is President of the Ghana Library Association, Ghana's representative on the Council of the Commonwealth Library Association, and editor of the Ghana Library Journal. He has credentials in the (British) Library Association; with studies in Manchester and Northwestern Polytechnic of London.

Mr. deHeer's tour will also include the Milam Lecture in Chicago on November 7. This memorial lecture is held to honor Carl Milam, ALA Executive Secretary from 1920-1948.

The tour will conclude with the International Federation of Library Association's Conference which will be held in Washington, D. C., November 18 - 20. Further information and a detailed itinerary for Mr. deHeer's tour may be obtained from Robert Wedgeworth, Executive Director, American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611.

- 30 -

Andrew N. deHeer, Director of the Research Library on African Affairs in Accra, Ghana, will lecture in more than fifteen library education programs in the U.S. and Canada between October 20 and November 15. His tour was been arranged through the Library Education Division of the American Library Association, and its International Library Education Committee chaired by Gus Hero,page 2, School of Library Service, Kent State University.

Mr. deHeer’s lectures will relate to the role, function, and problems of West African libraries. He directs a library which serves as the national library of Ghana, although it includes all of Africa in its scope. A. N. deHeer has been a major figure in Ghana’s successful library development. He is President of the Ghana Library Association, Ghana’s representative on the Council of the Commonwealth Library Association, and editor of the Ghana Library Journal. He has completed his studies in the (British) Library Association with studies in Manchester and Northwestern Polytechnic of London.

Mr. deHeer’s tour will also include the Milne Lecture in Chicago on November 7. This annual lecture is held to honor Carl Milne, ALA Executive Secretary from 1920-1948.

The tour will conclude with the International Federation of Library Associations’ Conference which will be held in Washington, D.C., November 12-22. Further