From: Peggy Barber, Director
Public Information Office

For immediate release

The Eunice Rockwell Oberly Award was presented to Henry T. Murphy, Jr., librarian and assistant director, Cornell University Libraries, Ithaca, New York. Mr. Murphy was honored at a luncheon of the ACRL Agriculture and Biological Science Section, Tuesday, July 1, 1975, during the 94th Annual Conference of the American Library Association in San Francisco. The award recognizes the best bibliography published in the fields of agriculture and biological science.

Mr. Murphy received his A.B. in Biology from Boston University; MALS, University of Michigan.

Mr. Murphy's professional experience includes Life Science Librarian at Purdue University; Librarian, Agricultural Library, Ohio State University; Librarian, Agricultural Experiment Station, West Lafayette, Indiana. He also was Medical Research Assistant, Boston University Medical School; Library Scholar and Library Fellow, University of Michigan; and consultant for the National Agricultural Library on Agricultural/Biological Vocabulary Project.

The award was presented for the monograph Comparative and veterinary medicine; a guide to the resource literature, co-authored with Ann E. Kerker.