The Office for Library Personnel Resources of the American Library Association will operate a placement service during the ALA Midwinter Meeting in Chicago. The service hours will be: Monday, January 20, 12 noon - 5 p.m.; Tuesday, January 21, and Wednesday, January 22 - 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., and Thursday, January 23 - 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Because the placement service will be operated this year by ALA rather than the National Registry for Librarians, it is necessary to register for Midwinter placement on special forms. Job order forms may be obtained from the OLPR, American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611. Job orders and applications must be on placement center forms. Resumes will be returned.

To provide better service, employers and applicants are requested to preregister with the Placement Center before January 3, 1975. Registrations will also be accepted at the Placement Center during the above hours.

Job orders which bear discriminatory specifications in respect to race, creed, age, color, sex or national origin will not be accepted. Job orders must provide adequate descriptions of academic and experience requirements, position content, opportunities for professional growth, salary, and other benefits. Applicants must provide adequate details of academic achievement and experience. Applicants should also specify areas and localities in which they will consider employment, and the minimum salary desired.

The placement office will be located in the Lower Exhibit Hall (third floor) of the Palmer House. Applicants and employers should contact the office immediately upon arrival at Midwinter, to confirm registrations and conference addresses.
