Regina U. Minudri, director of Professional Services, Alameda County Library, California; and chairman and editor, School Library Journal, is the recipient of the 1974 Grolier Foundation Award, which consists of $1000 and a citation of achievement. Ms. Minudri was presented this award at the final General Session, July 12th, of the American Library Association Annual Conference in New York City, the week of July 7 - 13, 1974.

Ms. Minudri received her B.A. at San Francisco College for Women and her M.L.S. at the University of California, Berkeley. She was reference librarian at Melo Park Library; regional librarian at Santa Clara County Library; Federal Young Adult Library Services Project Coordinator; on the faculty of the Library School at the University of San Francisco; and Young Adult Coordinator at Alameda County Library where she is presently director of Professional Services. She has been active in the American Library Association, the California Library Association, and the Bay Area Young Adult Librarians. Her publications include Getting It Together, Bibliography with Reed Coats; and has written various articles in School Library Journal and Wilson Library Bulletin.

The citation presented to Ms. Minudri reads in part: "... In recognition of her unique ability to affect change in many phases of librarianship so that young adults may have better traditional and non traditional service and materials. ... As a book reviewer and bibliographer she exhibits a rare combination of high professional standards and a precise knowledge of the interests of young people. . . . As teacher and lecturer she shares with her colleagues valuable insights into the needs and concerns of young people. . . . As administrator she reaches out to involve the community in decision making as well as in library operation."

Angela H. Hinudri, director of Professional Services, Alameda County Library, California, and chairman and editor, School Library Journal, is the recipient of the 1974 Grolier Foundation Award, which consists of $1,500 and a citation of achievement. Ms. Hinudri was presented this award at the final General Session, July 12th, of the American Library Association Annual Conference in New York City, the week of July 7 - 13, 1974.

Ms. Hinudri received her B.A. at San Francisco College for Women and her M.L.S. at the University of California, Berkeley. She was reference librarian at Palo Alto Library; regional librarian at Santa Clara County Library; Federal Young Adult Library Services Project Coordinator; on the faculty of the Library School at the University of San Francisco; and Young Adult Coordinator at Alameda County Library where she is presently director of Professional Services.
She has been active in the American Library Association, the California Library Association, and the Bay Area Young Adult Librarians. Her publications include Getting is Together, Bibliography of Read Coats; and has written various

The citation presented to Ms. Hinudri reads in part: " . . . in recognition of her unique ability to effect change in many phases of librarianship so that young adults may have better traditional and non-traditional service and materials. . . . As a book reviewer and bibliographer she exhibits a rare