Uriel Ofek, an Israeli children's book author and children's literature specialist, has been selected to give the 1978 Arbuthnot Honor Lecture. The selection of the Arbuthnot lecturer is made annually by a committee of the American Library Association's Children's Services Division. The lecture was established by Scott, Foresman and Company in tribute to May Hill Arbuthnot for her outstanding contribution to children's literature.

Dr. Ofek's children's books include Smoke Over Golan, the 1976 Israeli Honor Book selected by the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) Congress. The author of more than 15 other children's books, some of them translated into German, Danish and Dutch, Dr. Ofek has translated into Hebrew books by Mark Twain, Robert Louis Stevenson, Roald Dahl, A.A. Milne, Keith Robertson and others.

Dr. Ofek, whose doctoral dissertation focused on "The Beginning of Hebrew Children's Literature," studied in Toronto on a grant from the Canada Council. He serves as Chairperson of the Israeli section of IBBY and as Israeli corresponding editor for Phaedrus.

Any North American library school, college or university, department of education, library system, or any other potential sponsor—no matter how small—may apply for the privilege of hosting the 1978 lecture.
Application blanks are now available from the Children's Services Division, American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611. DEADLINE FOR COMPLETED APPLICATIONS IS MAY 20, 1977.

The selection of the host institution will be announced by the Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Committee during the ALA Annual Conference in Detroit, June 17 - 23, 1977. Committee members include Effie Lee Morris, Harriet Quimby and John Donovan, Chairperson.

Dr. Otuk, a children's book specialist, has been selected to give the 1978 Arbuthnot Honor Lecture. The selection of the Arbuthnot Lecturer is made annually by a committee of the American Library Association's Children's Services Division. The lecture was established by Scott, Foresman and Company in tribute to the late Arbuthnot for her outstanding contributions to juvenile literature.

Dr. Otuk's children's books include Over Colan, the 1976 Israeli Honor Book selected by the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) Congress. The author of more than 50 other children's books, seven of which have been translated into German, Danish and Dutch, Dr. Otuk has translated into Hebrew books by Nils Taus, Robert Louis Stevenson, Roi Shivi, A.A. Milne, Edith Rothenzweig and others.

Dr. Otuk, whose doctoral dissertation centered on "The Beginning of Hebrew Children's Literature," studied in Toronto on a grant from the Canada Council. He serves as Chairperson of the Israeli section of IBBY and as Israel's corresponding editor for Children.

Any North American library school, college or university, department of education, library system, or any other potential sponsor may apply for the privilege of hosting the 1978 lecture.
