Automated fax service developed for information on Newbery/Caldecott winners

An automated fax service for information about the 1995 Newbery/Caldecott winners has been developed by the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC) and the American Library Association (ALA) Headquarters Library and Information Center.

The winners of the Newbery and Caldecott Medals and Honor Books will be announced at 9 a.m., on Monday, February 6, during the ALA Midwinter Meeting in Philadelphia. Subscribers to the automated fax service will receive the award information the same day the winners are announced.

There is a $5 charge. An invoice will accompany the award information. For more information about the automated notification service or to sign up, call the Headquarters Library at 800-545-2433, press 6, or send an e-mail message to Charles.Harmon@ala.org.

The information will also be available free by calling the Headquarters Library or the ALA Public Information Office at 800-545-2433, ext. 5041/5044.

ALSC is a division of the American Library Association.
