Scenario One:
Research Project in Freshman Art History Seminar

Write a CFP (call for papers) for a conference panel.

You can choose to focus on any period in art history.

Your CFP should lay out some of the major questions in your chosen research area, as well as indicate who the leading scholars are.

Scenario Two:
Research Assignment in French Literature

Choose a piece of art or literature that has been taken to trial, and research a subject related to that trial.

You may focus on any era or region.

Our approach

Negotiate between faculty expectations and student needs

Shift the pedagogical focus from tools to students' research questions

Break down the steps to demystify the research process

Thank you!
