Is ALA Annual really in two weeks? If you haven't planned out every hour of your conference, don't worry, we've got some sessions we'd like to highlight! Read on to learn more about Washington, D.C. and see what programming ODLOS has planned for Annual.

Finding EDI Events with the Online Scheduler

With so many great events happening this year, we want to ensure that you feel organized and prepared before you step through the convention center doors. By visiting the ALA Annual website, you have access to our Online Scheduler. This feature allows you to sort by subject, library type, meeting type, and ALA Unit. If you're interested in sessions surrounding diversity and inclusion, select "Equity Diversity & Inclusion" from the "Subject" drop-down box.

Sessions of Interest

Below are some sessions that you may be interested in, some may require additional tickets and other are already included in your registration. Seating is limited, so be sure to register before the event sells out!

Jean E. Coleman Library Outreach Lecture

The Jean E. Coleman lecture series honors Dr. Jean E. Coleman, the first director of the ALA Office for Literacy and Outreach Services (now the Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services) for her leadership in focusing the association's attention on issues affecting traditionally underserved and underrepresented people in libraries.

This year's invited lecturer is Satia Marshall Orange, former director of the Office for Literacy and Outreach Services (OLOS). Under Orange's passionate leadership and advocacy, OLOS broadened the association's support and celebration of traditionally underserved library staff and library communities, developed new ALA member units and increased participation in events and activities, including the initiation of the annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunrise Celebration. Orange was the driving force behind the inception of the Sunrise Celebration, as well as its continued observance as a revered tradition at Midwinter. In 2017, Orange was honored with the American Library Association Ethnic and Multicultural Information Exchange Round Table (EMIERT) Distinguished Librarian Award.

The 2019 Jean E. Coleman Library Outreach Lecture will take place on Saturday, June 22 from 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Diversity and Outreach Fair

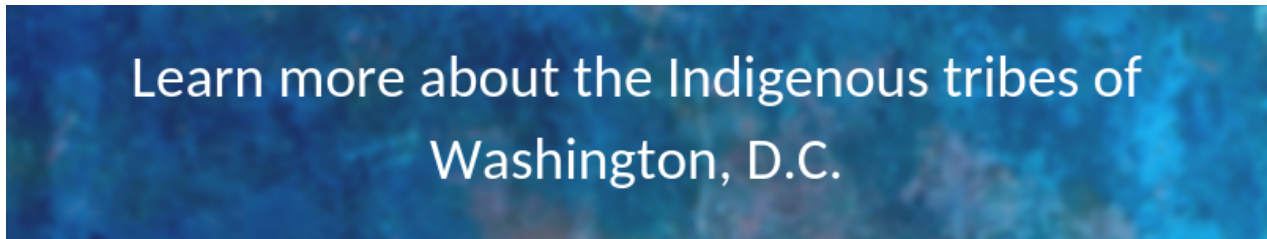

Each year, the ALA Office for Diversity, Literacy and Outreach Services invites library professionals from all kinds of institutions to submit proposals to participate in the ALA Diversity and Outreach Fair, which is held during ALA's Annual Conferences.

The Fair highlights library services to underserved or underrepresented communities, including people with disabilities; people experiencing poverty and homelessness; people of color; English-language learners; gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people; new Americans; new and non-readers; older adults; people living in rural areas; and incarcerated people and ex-offenders.

The Diversity and Outreach Fair will take place in the Exhibit Hall on Saturday, June 22 from 3:30 p.m. - 5 p.m.
