

Minutes of the Continuing Education Committee
Midwinter 2001

The meeting began at 9:30 a.m. at the Convention Center Room #2.

I. Introductions-This was a joint meeting of the Standards and Continuing Education Committee.

II. Round Table Discussion at ACRL Annual Conference- Lis Chabot of the Standards committee discussed the roundtable to be held Saturday during the conference. It is entitled, "Endangered Species: Librarians and Standards in a new educational environment."

III. Online Tutorial on Standards- Marilyn Martin of the Continuing Education Committee spoke about this initiative. Participants are: Bob Fernekes, Bill Nelson, Becky Bostian, and maybe Bonnie Lindauer. It will focus on outcomes assessment and how it should not be an onerous task. Elements include: discussion of the parts of the standards, links to other web sites, and as a lesson is completed it should be sent to the CLS website. Charlie Getchell volunteered to host the tutorial. We would like to use COLLIB-L to advertise it. Bill, Bob, and Becky are to tell the committees what the time frame on the development should be. The length of the tutorial may range from 9-12 weeks.

IV. ACRL Annual Conference program was not approved.

V. ACRL Program sponsored by Continuing Education Committee-the committee will help with flyers and other set up at ACRL conference. The program is entitled:"Recruiting students to Academic Librarianship." VI. Chair for 2001-02-Rita Gulstad agreed to serve as Chair again if she was allowed. If not, Marilyn Martin was elected Chair. (Marilyn will be the Chair)

VII. Discussion of the Goals and Objectives for CLS. The committee felt that we meet many of the objectives as layed out as continuing education encompasses many areas.

VIII. There was discussion on trying for a program at ALA in Atlanta.

The meeting adjourned at 11:00 a.m.

Respectfully,

Rita Gulstad
Chair
