

CLS Continuing Education Committee
ALA Conference, Chicago
June 25, 2005

Minutes

Attendees: Susan Whyte (Chair), Debra Rollins, Tom Karel

- Discussion of ideas for a half-day practical workshop at the 2006 annual conference in New Orleans
 - o Schedule as a pre-conference workshop on Friday afternoon
 - o Interactive
 - o Keep cost low
 - o Myers-Briggs activities? – Debra will provide information on a speaker from Florida
 - o Invite Dane Ward – also a Myers-Briggs expert
 - o Models of collaboration with faculty (and others) outside of the library – “Culture This!” – resistance from other cultures
 - o Any local speakers in Louisiana on information literacy?
 - o Can Tulane or Loyola host?
 - o Funding request from ACRL is due by 8/15/05 – proposal must relate to the ACRL Strategic Plan – Debra will work on this

- Planning for the 2007 annual conference in Washington, DC
 - o Should we plan for the ACRL Conference in Baltimore in 2007 instead of ALA 2007?
 - o CE Committee could alternate programs between the ALA and ACRL conferences
 - o 2007 program could be a follow-up to the 2006 topic
 - o possible speakers – Steven Bell, Patricia Brevik
 - o Susan will contact the new members of the committee about involvement with planning activities
 - o Susan will be attending ALA Midwinter in San Antonio and will meet with any committee members also attending

- submitted by Tom Karel