

INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM

To: Gail P. Warner,
SRRT Action Council Coordinator

Date 3 February 1987

From: David L. Searcy, Chair CSK Award TF

Subject: Annual Report

A total of 392 tickets were sold to the 1986 annual awards breakfast during the New York ALA conference. Due to problems with the ballroom, the New York Marriott Marquis Hotel refunded $1000.00 to the task force.

The task force received a total of $625.00 in donations this fall:

Judge I. C. Smith, Delray Beach, FL	$500.00
Frances J. Bright Women's Club, Delray Beach, FL	$100.00
Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Delray Beach, FL	$ 25.00

Two meetings were scheduled during the 1987 ALA midwinter conference to plan the annual awards breakfast to be held in San Francisco at 7:30 a.m. on Tuesday, June 30th.

The awards jury selected Mildred Pitts Walter, author, "Justin and the Best Biscuits in the World" (Lothrop, Lee & Shepard), and Jerry Pinkney, illustrator, "Half a Moon and One Whole Star" (Macmillan) as the 1987 recipients.

Honorable mention: Joyce Hansen, author, "Which Way Freedom" (Walker); Ashley Bryan, reteller and illustrator, "Lion and the Ostrich Chicks and other African Folk Tales" (Atheneum); Pat Cummings "C.L.O.U.D.S. (Lothrop).

The CSK Award will be listed in the revised publication, "Awards, Honors and Prizes Volume 1: United States and Canada".
