Gale Research/ALA EMIERT Multicultural Award established

Nominations are being accepted for the new Gale Research/American Library Association (ALA) Ethnic Materials Information Exchange Round Table (EMIERT) Multicultural Award. The deadline is December 1.

The award, $1,000 and a citation donated by Gale Research Company, will be given annually to persons in the library world in recognition of outstanding achievement and leadership in serving the multicultural/multiethnic community with significant collection building, public and outreach services to culturally diverse populations and creative multicultural materials and programs.

Nominations should be sent to: David Cohen, Chair, Gale Research/EMIE Round Table Multicultural Award, Queens College Library School, NSF Building - #316, Flushing, N.Y. 11367, or to ALA, Office for Library Outreach Services, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611.

The committee will make a decision during the 1994 ALA Midwinter Meeting, February 4-10, in Los Angeles. The award will be presented at the EMIERT Membership Meeting during the 1994 Annual Conference, June 23-30, in Miami.
