ALTA Trustee Citation recipients announced

Charlotte M. Forgeron and J.A. (Jake) Killian are the 1993 recipients of the American Library Trustee Association (ALTA) Trustee Citations.

The citations are given to library trustees for outstanding service.

Forgeron is president of the Board of Trustees of the Eldredge Public Library in Chatham, Mass., and Killians is chairman of the Boards of both the Hampton B. Allen Library in Wadesboro, N.C., and the Sandhill Regional Library System of North Carolina.

"Ms. Forgeron spearheaded the Library Restoration and Expansion Project at the Eldredge Public Library which has resulted in the library's recognition and listing in the state and federal Registers of Historic Places as well as a Realtors' Award as a 'distinguished building,'" said Barbara Loer, chair of the ALTA Trustee Citation Committee. "She also worked to establish an annual fund drive for the library in a community where she has been a lifelong resident and friend of the library."

Forgeron, a retired principal of the Chatham Elementary School, has been a library trustee at Eldredge Public Library since 1981, and president of the board since . She is a retire
