

For Immediate Release
April 1993

From: Pamela Goodes
Linda Wallace
312-280-5043, 5042

Twelve PLA national achievement citations presented

The Public Library Association (PLA), a division of the American Library Association (ALA), presented 12 National Achievement Citations this year as part of an annual program designed to give nationwide recognition to significant activities that improve the organization, management or services of public libraries.

The libraries and programs recognized are:

Anne Arundel County Public Library, Annapolis, Md., "PERC -- Performance Evaluation Review Committee;" Athens (Ga.) Regional Library System, "In Pursuit of Lifelong Learning: A Model of Library Literacy;" Brown County Library, Green Bay, Wis., "Recycling Hotline;" Public Library of Charlotte (N.C.) and Mecklenburg Counties, "African American Album;" Cromaine Library, Hartland, Mich., "What in the World?;" East Chicago (Ind.) Public Library, "Career Services Center;" Gaston County Public Library, Gastonia, N.C., "Literature Lecture Residency Series;" Kanawha County Public Library System, Charleston, W.V., "Drive Up Window Service;" Kent County Library System, Grand Rapids, Mich., "SLICK -- Super Library Information Club for Kids;" Newport Beach (Calif.) Public Library, "BIN -- Business Information Newport;" Orange Country Library System, Orlando, Fla., "Info Power," and Phoenix (Ariz.) Public Library, "'Jayne's World': A New Summer Reading Video Promotion."

Applications for the 1993 National Achievement Citation Program are available from the PLA Office, 800-545-2433, ext. 5PLA.

