YALSA names Selected Films and Videos for Young Adults

A committee of the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA), a division of the American Library Association (ALA), has compiled its 1993 list of Selected Films and Videos for Young Adults. The selection was made during ALA's Midwinter Meeting in Denver.

The films and videos were selected from titles released in the United States suggested by librarians and media specialists. Titles are chosen on the basis of young adult appeal, technical quality, subject content and use for different age levels.

Members of this year's Selected Films and Videos for Young Adults Committee were: Stephen Crowley, chair, Putnam County Library System; Rosemary Chance, instructor, Department of Library Science, Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, Texas; Catherine Clancy, head of Young Adult Services, Boston (Mass.) Public Library; Rhonda Glazier, public services librarian, Daniel Boone Regional Library, Columbia, Mo.; Paulette Goodman, director, Learning Center, Kennedy Junior High, Lisle, Ill.; Mary Huebscher, regional young adult library service manager, Cuyahoga County Public Library, Parma (Ohio) Regional; Andrew W. Hunter, youth services librarian, Public
