Item 3. At the Midwinter Meeting in 2005, the Policy Monitoring Committee informally requested that the Committee on Diversity review Section 60, Minority Concerns, as portions of it have not been revised since 1986. The Committee on Diversity drafted a complete replacement for the current Section 60, and the Policy Monitoring Committee recommends that these policies be added to the Policy Manual, replacing the existing Section 60, as

60.3 Combating Prejudice, Stereotyping, and Discrimination

The American Library Association actively commits its programs and resources to those efforts that combat prejudice, stereotyping, and discrimination against individuals and groups in the library profession and in library user populations on the basis of race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, creed, color, religious background, national origin, language of origin or disability. Nothing in the Resolution on Prejudice, Stereotyping, and Discrimination authorizes censoring, expurgation, or restrictive labeling of materials. Actions and programs to raise the awareness of library users to any problem or condition would not be in conflict with the Library Bill of Rights when they are free of any element of advocacy. Both documents respect the rights of all who use libraries to do so freely and without being subjected to pressure or censorship from within the institution.

Furthermore, ALA believes that the struggle against racism, prejudice, stereotyping, and discrimination is a continuous effort and must extend throughout its membership.

Specifically, the American Library Association and libraries will:

1. Seek to facilitate equitable participation of all people within decision-making processes in the Association and will strive to create an environment where all are welcome and where diversity is a collective goal.
2. Encourage its membership, libraries, vendors and stakeholders to implement anti-racism policies that outline the organization's expectations of its participants, staff and members.
3. Support anti-racism work within the broader society by monitoring, evaluating and advocating for human rights and equity legislation, regulations, policy and practice.

Thus, the American Library Association will endeavor to ensure full representation of all racial groups and have this reflected in its policies, procedures, and programs, as well as in its relations with staff, members, stakeholders, and the community at large, thereby reaffirming its commitment to diversity, inclusiveness, and mutual respect for all human beings.

At the 1998 ALA Annual Conference, on recommendation by the Council Policy Monitoring Committee (1997-98 CD#17.2, Item #6), the ALA Council amended Policy 60.2 (Combating Prejudice, Stereotyping, and Discrimination) as follows:

The American Library Association actively commits its prestige and resources to a coordinated action program that will combat prejudice, stereotyping, and discrimination against individuals and groups in the library profession and library service because of race, sex, sexual orientation, creed, color, national origin, or disability."

NOTE TO READER: The following statement was taken from the Policy Monitoring Committee Report, 1997-98 CD#17.2, Item #6: To extend coverage under this policy to people with disabilities, the PMC recommends adding the term “disability” to the list of covered groups. The PMC also recommends adding the phrase “sexual orientation” to this list. The revised policy would then read as stated above.
