EBSS – Communications Studies Committee
Meeting Agenda
August 9, 11am-Noon (Eastern Time)

1. Agenda

- Introductions
- Vice chair of the EBSS Communication Studies Committee - would anyone like to serve in this capacity?
- Journalism companion document to the ACRL Framework - finalize edits
- Committee work brainstorm for the next year (or two)
- Am I missing anything? Feel free to suggest agenda items.

2. Google Drive folder

- You all have editing access to our Google Drive folder.
- In the folder, you'll find the Journalism companion document to the ACRL Framework, which we have worked on the last two years and has a few final edits to incorporate from recent feedback. In that document, there are highlights, a couple of comments/suggestions, and some text in blue that we need to address.
- In our folder, there's also a "Notes For Final Framework Doc: 6/8/21 Comm Studies Meeting Minutes" document from our last committee meeting that we can refer to for any additional changes we might want to make to the companion document.
- Lastly, you'll find a few additional, related documents to the companion document. All of this may be especially useful to Lia and Rebecca as new members of the group, for a bit of insight into the work we've done to get to this point (and we can chat about this at our meeting as well).
- Michael, you'll see a Meeting Minutes folder for you. Thank you for volunteering to be Secretary!

I look forward to seeing you all in a week,

Jen

Hello, Comm Studies team!

I hope this message finds you well, amid the start of the term for many.

Below is an agenda for our meeting next Friday, September 10th, at 3pm ET:

- Brief introductions (an encore, with Hillary!)
- Finalize edits/suggestions for the Journalism companion document to the ACRL Framework.

  Reminder To-Do: Please review the draft framework document one last time, including highlighted sections and appended comments which respond to feedback from this committee's 6/8/21 meeting. Please submit any feedback you have about the document by September 7th by making suggestions/edits in the document itself.
- Continued our committee work brainstorm for the next year (or two), if there is time.
- Am I missing anything? Feel free to suggest agenda items.

Wishing you a lovely week+,

Jen

EBSS Communication Studies Committee
Meeting Agenda
Sept 29, 2021 – 4pm (Eastern Time)

- Discuss ALA Annual 2022 Program Planning Collaboration with the Politics, Policy, and International Relations Section

  From the chair of the PPIRS section: "Our committee's deliberations have focused on programming regarding misinformation and disinformation, and we are interested in working jointly with the EBSS program planning committee and the Communications Studies Committee on programming that educates session participants on the process through which news gets from observations in the field to a product that is consumed and the social and cognitive psychology that factors into whether we will believe the information that we consume. Let me know if you might be interested in such a collaboration."

- Brainstorm next steps for the committee - what will our work entail this year?

Our previous brainstorm included discussions of professional development programming (possibly webinars or panels) on topics related to communication studies, journalism, PR, advertising, and the like. Possible topics were media literacy, news literacy, and information access and equity within communication and journalism. We noted that we could develop resources/support that take other forms, not necessarily a webinar.

- Chat about the possibility of an EBSS Emerging Leaders project for next year based on discussions of committee work and potential collaborative opportunities?

- Anything else we should include/discuss?

With best wishes,

Jen

(If something undergoes major changes, then we would want to make sure it went back through the publication approval process again)."
