Committee Charge:
Publish an online, peer-reviewed scholarly publication highlighting research by and relevant to new librarians.

Project Description / Goals:
In the past, Scholarship, Research and Writing has produced a print version of Footnotes each spring containing peer-reviewed scholarly research. This year, the committee is charged with migrating that publication to an online environment, developing new guidelines for frequency and publication, and completing the publication process for 1-2 editions.

Specific Objectives (numbers, tangible end-products):
- Develop a model for the online-only version of this publication
- Name the publication
- Properly register the publication – ISSN and/or inclusion in indexes
- Complete publication process: send out call for proposals, review proposals and choose potential articles; receive articles and submit them to peer-review process; publish articles in online journal and publicize completed editions.
