**Project Description / Goals: 3M Library Systems supports new librarians by funding the cost of attending an ALA Annual Conference. 3M provides funding to cover the cost of registration fees, transportation, lodging, and some incidental expenses for recipients to attend the ALA Annual Conference. Almost 100 NMRT members have benefited from the 3M/NMRT Professional Development Grant since its inception in 1975. The Committee's work involves publicizing the grants, soliciting applications from qualified individuals, reviewing applications, selecting recipients, and notifying recipients, as well as those not selected. The Committee prepares the application for the following year, in consultation with the new chair, if he/she has been appointed. The Committee also coordinates conference attendance and responsibilities of award recipients with the 3M liaison.

**Specific Objectives (numbers, tangible end-products):

1. Update grant information on the NMRT website and online application form through the Web Committee.
2. Update Handbook entry on NMRT wiki.
3. Advertise the grant on discussion lists and in library publications at all levels—state, regional, and national and through social networking venues.
4. Maintain contact with the 3M liaison, and keep him/her informed of committee progress.
5. Select three recipients at a closed meeting in January. (Venue yet to be decided: May be a combination of virtual and face-to-face during Midwinter)
6. Notify recipients and individuals not selected as soon as possible after Midwinter.
7. Ensure recipients meet eligibility requirements.
