

SUGGESTED RESOURCES

American FactFinder Click on Fact Sheet link on the home page to access your community's profile. For state and county level data visit State and County QuickFacts from the U.S. Census Bureau. City and county planning offices can also be good sources of data, along with state departments of health and state libraries.

<http://www.azlibrary.gov/cdt/commneeds.aspx>

Community Analysis Methods and Evaluative Options: CAMEO Handbook Consulting Librarians Group, Sandra M. Cooper, Nancy Bolt, Keith Curry Lance, Lawrence Webster, in cooperation with MGT of America, Inc. for the Library of Virginia
<http://skyways.lib.ks.us/pathway/cameo/>

Consumer Health Information for Public Librarians provides an overview of community analysis from the perspective of the healthcare consumer, and the healthcare environment in chapters 1 and 2.

<http://www.lrs.org/public/community.php>

Montana Department of Commerce Community Needs Assessment Techniques
<http://comdev.mt.gov/includes/CDBG/Needsassessment/EXHA.pdf>

Profiling Your Community Northeast Kansas Library System (NEKLS) in 1998. (New Pathways is a customized alternative rather than a replacement for The New Planning for Results.)

Pyko, Marie and Thad Hartman. Gathering and Using Community Data: Making the Best Decisions for Your Library (ALA TechSource Workshop). Chicago: American Library Association TechSource.

<http://www.sandiego.gov/public-library/pdf/logan>

Western Rural Development Center Community Needs Assessment Techniques
<http://extension.usu.edu/htm/publications/publication=8153>

SAMPLE COMMUNITY ASSESSMENT

<http://www.ivygroup.com/comps/BrooklynSpeaks.pdf>

SAMPLES of SURVEYS

http://www.lrs.org/public/ca\_form.php

<http://www.uhls.org/uhs/communityanalysis/>