A GAY
BIBLIOGRAPHY

SIXTH EDITION — MARCH 1980

This selective non-fiction bibliography features materials that present or support positive views of the gay experience, that help in understanding gay people and gay issues, or that have special historical value.

GENERAL NOTES

Fiction, poetry and drama are not included in this bibliography. However, materials about fiction, poetry and drama are listed in the "Literature and the Arts" section. Also, many of the gay periodicals listed here have fiction and poetry in them.

This bibliography does not include citations of materials from gay periodicals, whether individual articles or entire issues on special topics. There is simply too much valuable material in gay periodicals for listing in a selective bibliography, and it seemed fairer to exclude the whole field rather than try to make choices.

This list is limited to materials published in the U.S. and Canada. Most of the books and pamphlets are from publishers listed in the back of BOOKS IN PRINT, which can be consulted in most libraries and bookstores. Addresses are given here for those book and pamphlet publishers not listed in BOOKS IN PRINT (and for a few of those that are, for the reader's convenience).

Price, where given, is for a single copy of the item including mailing charges. Ask the publisher or distributor about quantity prices.

To save space, these city abbreviations are used here (but should not be used on mail): DC = Washington, D.C.; LA = Los Angeles, Calif.; NYC = New York, N.Y.; SF = San Francisco, Calif. State abbreviations are those used by the U.S. Postal Service.

NOTE ON COPYRIGHT AND COPYING

This bibliography was prepared by gay people who donated their time and efforts. Still, there were heavy expenses, not only for printing but also for the various costs of collecting materials and checking information by mail and telephone. We must sell enough copies of this edition of the bibliography to recover our expenses and assure future editions. So if additional copies are needed, they should be bought from us (rates and address on back page). Reproducing our bibliography, besides violating copyright law, would only benefit the copy-machine companies which have not put out any of the expense and effort necessary to produce this list.

Reproduction of this list or any part of it in any form is therefore expressly prohibited without advance written permission from the Gay Task Force of ALA. Help us to keep on helping you, by getting additional copies of our bibliography from us, not from copiers!

FILMS AND FILMSTRIPS

Because of time limitations, only films, filmstrips, and slide-tape shows are listed here. The Gay Task Force of American Library Association does collect information on all kinds of audiovisuals. We welcome inquiries (preferably by phone) and will gladly make recommendations of a-v materials for particular needs.

A COMEDY IN SIX UNNATURAL ACTS. 16 mm film by Jan Oxenberg, 1975, b/w, 25 minutes. Iris Films, Box 5353, Berkeley, CA 94705; rental $55, sale $375.

Marvelous in-group satire—a delight for gay audiences. Spoofs stereotype images of lesbians: the wallflower, stompin' dyke, child molester, role player, seductress, and non-monogamous right-on sister. No dialogue; five episodes with music accompaniment, the sixth has a voice reading.

Commentary by a gay man and a lesbian couple, two psychologists of moderate views, and a psychiatrist of the sickness/cure school. Visually rather static. Especially useful for audiences that want a 'balanced' and low-key film.

GAY PEOPLE/STRAIGHT HEALTH CARE. Slide-tape show by Jeri Dilno for Gay Nurses Alliance, 1974, color, 15 minutes. Gay Nurses Alliance/New York, 44 St. Marks Place, NYC 10003; rental $35.

Dramatizations of actual gay patient and gay nurse experiences. A gay man tries to visit his lover who's in intensive care after a heart attack; a gay nurse is afraid to protest staff jokes about gays; a gay youngster with VD sees a doctor with anti-gay views: a lesbian faced with a serious diagnosis needs the open support of her lover to cope; a gay man's arm dressings are neglected by homophobic hospital staff after a visit from his lover. Pioneer use of a-v by a gay professional organization to illustrate gay issues.

GAY, PROUD AND SOBER. 16mm film by Jesus Trevino et al., 1977, color, 21 minutes. Image Associates, 352 Conejo Rd., Santa Barbara, CA 93103; rental $35, sale $310.

Alcoholism and alcoholism treatment in Los Angeles' gay community are explored through interviews with recovering alcoholics and comments by experts in the field. A bit talky but well done; handles a difficult subject with dignity and insight. Excellent educational film for gay audiences and helping professionals.

GAY USA. 16mm film by Arthur J. Bressan Jr. and David Pasko, 1977, color, 73 minutes. Kit Parker Films, Carmel Valley, CA 93924; classroom rental (up to 5 days) $75; commercial rental $100; 7-year lease $900.

A celebration film for gay audiences. Scenes of Gay Pride parades in four big cities, intercut with interviews with participants and bystanders. Exuberant spirit, though stretched out too long. A kind of superior home-movies-of-our-costume-party for gay people: fun and fascinating and upbeat for those in the family, but you wouldn't expect outsiders to get as much out of it.

THE HIDDEN MINORITY: HOMOSEXUALITY IN OUR SOCIETY. Filmstrip by Barbara Weisberg, 1979, two color filmstrips with cassettes and phonodics, teacher's guide, total 46 minutes. Guidance Associates, Communications Park, Box 300, White Plains, NY 10602; sale $69.50.

Good introductory material for high school use and for audiences not yet at ease with the subject of homosexuality. Part 1 has teenagers expressing myths and stereotypes about gay people which are answered by adult authority figures. Part 2 is more compelling and touching because of personal sharing by gay people and their relatives. Part 2 (22 minutes) can be shown alone to allow time for class discussion. The gay movement is mentioned but not played up. No comments by or about gay teenagers.

HOME MOVIE. 16mm film by Jan Oxenberg, 1973, color & b/w, 12 minutes. Iris Films, Box 5353, Berkeley, CA 94705; rental $30; sale $240.

Gently and with touches of humor, a young woman shows the unfolding of her lesbianism during a conventional childhood and school days. Includes bits from home movies her parents made of her. A fine autobiographical film.

Good discussion-starter for high school audiences. Two teenage boys planning a rafting trip argue about a third boy suspected of being gay. The point of the film is not to present information about homosexuality but to get viewers to examine their own attitudes towards it.

IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILDREN. 16mm film by Iris Films/Iris Feminist Collective, 1977, color, 53 minutes. Iris Films, Box 5353, Berkeley, CA 94705; rental $70, sale $660.

Eight lesbian mothers, their children, their custody cases. The women are of diverse races and backgrounds. Emphasis on home and daily life. The children speak for themselves. A warm and moving film that sensitively conveys the human elements of lesbian custody issues. [Note: A discussion guide for this film has been prepared especially for use by the American Friends Service Committee. Copies are available to anyone for $1 prepaid from Community Relations Division, AFSC, 1501 Cherry St., Philadelphia, PA 19102.]

Recommend showing Part 2 only (about 21 minutes). Part 1, about changes in attitudes toward homosexuality, is noticeably dated. Part 3, a question-and-answer approach, is not well realized. Part 2 is still outstanding as a quick introduction to a variety of gay individuals, gay people's feelings, and gay issues. Excellent sequence of a college student's dialogue with her hostile father. Another scene touches on "the little oppressions," such as that non-gays fail to treat gay people's love relationships as significant.

LA VENDER. 16mm film by Colleen Monahan and Elaine Jacobs, 1972, color, 13 minutes. Perennial Education, Box 855, Ravinia, Highland Park, IL 60035; rental $25.40, sale $254.

A glimpse at the life of a young lesbian couple, one a seminary student. Too short to examine their relationship in depth, but a positive and wholesome portrayal.

THE NURSE AND HOMOSEXUALITY. Filmstrip by Warren J. Deacon et al., 1975, color filmstrip with cassette, 21 minutes. Part 7 of “Human Sexuality and Nursing Practice” program. Concept Media, Box 19542, Irvine, CA 92714, sale $82.

Effective consciousness-raising material, just as good for non-medical audiences—especially second episode. First episode shows reactions of hospital workers to a gay patient. The second deals sensitively with the social pressures gay people face on and off the job, and the distancing some closeted gays resort to.

A POSITION OF FAITH. 16mm film by Michael Rhodes, 1973, color, 18 minutes. United Church of Christ Audiovisuals: 600 Grand Ave., Ridgefield, NJ 07657, or 512 Burlington Ave., LaGrange, IL 60525; rental $20, sale $300.

Should an openly gay person be ordained to the ministry? A United Church of Christ Association debates and decides. An excellent “balanced” film, slightly weighted toward anti-ordination opinion. Does not attempt to deal with biblical questions. Includes comments by young people the ministry candidate worked with in the church. His ordination was approved.

ROLLIN’ WITH LOVE. 16mm film by Chic Thompson et al., 1977, color, 5 minutes. Focus International, 1 E. 53rd, NYC 10022; rental (3 days) $25, sale $100.

Clever animation uses tennis balls to act out typical gay situations. Cute but not substantial; most effective as an ice-breaker for gay groups or audiences already aware of gay issues.

SANDY AND MADELEINE’S FAMILY. 16mm film by Sherrie Farrell et al., 1974, color, 30 minutes. Multi Media Resource Center, 1525 Franklin St., SF 94109; rental $57, sale $390.

A lesbian couple and their struggle to keep custody of their six children. The children’s feelings are explored. The women are deeply religious and maintain close ties with the church. Includes comments by young people the ministry candidate worked with in the church. His ordination was approved.

SOME OF YOUR BEST FRIENDS. 16mm film by Kenneth Robinson et al., 1972, color, 40 minutes. University of Southern California Film Distribution Center, Div. of Cinema-Television, University Park, LA 90007; rental 1-3 days $13.50, 4-6 days $27, plus $4 shipping/handling; sale $375.

Interviews with a lesbian and a gay man anchor scenes of gay groups’ meetings and marches, a recounting of an incident of police entrapment (still common in some places), and actual footage of an early confrontation between gays and psychiatrists. Sound in group scenes hard to follow.

A WOMAN’S PLACE IS IN THE HOUSE: A PORTRAIT OF ELAINE NOBLE. 16mm film by Nancy Porter and Mickey Lemle, 1975 (film released 1977), color, 29 minutes. Texture Films, 1600 Broadway, NYC 10019; rental $48, sale $395. Excellent documentary about the first openly-gay legislator in Massachusetts and her daily trials and triumphs. Her feminism is neither the overriding concern in her life nor is it irrelevant or incidental. Human and humorous portrait. Winner of Blue Ribbon, American Film Festival.
ABOUT OUR GROUP

The Gay Task Force of the American Library Association (Social Responsibilities Round Table division) was launched in 1970 and was the first openly gay subgroup in a professional association. We work to get more and better gay materials into libraries and out to users, and to deal with discrimination against gay people as librarians and library users. For a lively account of our activities up to fall 1975, see "Combatting the Lies in the Libraries" in THE GAY ACADEMIC edited by Louie Crew (ETC Publications, 1978).

Among our accomplishments: Getting ALA to pass resolutions in 1971 and 1977 supporting the rights of gay people as librarians and library users . . . Breaking open the subject of gay reading for young people, starting with our program at the 1975 ALA conference called "The Children's Hour: Must Gay Be Grim for Jane and Jim?" and our subsequent publication of "Guidelines for Treatment of Gay Themes in Children's and Young Adult Literature" . . . Launching the Gay Book Award to recognize and honor books of exceptional merit on the gay experience. History of the Gay Book Award:

1971 - PATIENCE AND SARAH by Isabel Miller
1972 - LESBIAN/WOMAN BY Del Martin and Phyllis Lyon (Joint award)
1973 - THE GAY MYSTIQUE by Peter Fisher
1974 - SEX VARIANT WOMEN IN LITERATURE by Jeannette Foster
1975 - HOMOSEXUALITY: LESBIANS AND GAY MEN IN SOCIETY, HISTORY AND LITERATURE edited by Jonathan Katz
1976 - No award
1977 - FAMILIAR FACES, HIDDEN LIVES by Howard Brown
1978 - OUR RIGHT TO LOVE edited by Ginny Vida
1979 - NOW THAT YOU KNOW by Betty Fairchild and Nancy Hayward

Our only money allocation is $200 a year from the Social Responsibilities Round Table, our parent group within the American Library Association. We try to have our publications pay for themselves, but do not always succeed in this. To make up any deficit, and for all our other expenses, we depend on donations. So we welcome contributions for our work! Every bit helps and is appreciated! Please make donation checks payable to "Barbara Gittings—GTF" and send to the address below.
