INEXPENSIVE PLACES TO STAY IN DETROIT

The SRRT Task Force on Women and Women Library Workers will both have suites at the Detroit Feminist Women's Club which is located within easy distance of Cobo Hall. The Club has double rooms available for $14, single rooms for $10, dorm rooms with 4-5 cots for $5 and sleeping bag space for $2.50. For reservations, write the Feminist Women's Club, attn. Lynn Stephens, 2110 Park, Detroit, MI 48201.

The Feminist Women's Club is located on Park between Elizabeth and Columbia. It is just a block from Grand Circus Park - significant because a 25¢ a ride trolley runs continuously between Cobo Hall and Grand Circus Park. The Club has a cafeteria, an olympic-size swimming pool, comfortable lounges and meeting rooms.

Other inexpensive housing is available at the YWCA. Dorm rooms are $4 and single rooms $9 and $10. For reservations, write Esther Hill, Downtown YWCA, 2230 Witherell, Detroit, MI 48226.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE REORGANIZATION OF THE TASK FORCE

Linda Crowe was asked at the Task Force's Midwinter meeting to make some suggestions for the reorganization of the Task Force.

1) A Coordinating Council. The role of the Council will be to carry out the functions of the Task Force efficiently and effectively.

The functions are: Hold meetings at annual and midwinter ALA conferences, publish WOMEN IN LIBRARIES, publish the bibliography WOMEN IN LIBRARIANSHIP, provide organized base within ALA, plan and implement special programs and projects, co-operate with other groups to achieve the stated purpose, coordinate activities with other women-oriented groups, monitor the creators and producers of library resources in their handling of women-related materials.

The Council will consist of nine members, each serving a two year term (excepting the past coordinator who will serve a third year).

Roles of the Council: Coordinator - Presiding Officer (in second year); Program Coordinator - Responsible for planning programs for the annual conference and midwinter meeting (all councilors will share this job, but the Coordinator will assume chief responsibility); Note-Taker - Internal Minutes; Money Person - In charge of finances; Councilors At Large - Will act as liaisons to the Committee on the Status of Women and other discussion groups within ALA centered around women's issues. They will keep the Council informed of the various concerns expressed by these groups.

2) Elections. Four members will be elected each year to serve a two year term. The Council will then be composed of the four new councilors, four councilors in their second term and the past Coordinator (third year). During the reorganization (the first year), eight councilors will be elected. The four with the highest number of votes will serve two years and the other four councilors will serve one year terms. The Council will also include the past coordinator. The nominations will be made during midwinter and the ballot will appear in WOMEN IN LIBRARIES. During the reorganization the nominations and voting will take place at the summer conference (1977).

A response from Kathy Weibel -

I think the proposed structure is great but have some questions and comments:

1) Shouldn't the editor or a representative of WOMEN IN LIBRARIES be on the Council?
2) How long should roles of folks other than the coordinator be? One or two years?
3) Responsibilities of the Coordinator should be explained;
4) Is there any way other than the mail ballot to elect folks? How about mail ballot plus at conference meetings? There would be a ballot box at our ALA liaison's desk during the entire conference so more than those attending meetings could vote.

REPORT FROM THE JOB ROSTER COMMITTEE

Julie Chase (North Texas State University Library) is chairing the committee which is exploring the job roster. Here is a partial report on her committee's ideas to date.

I. Problem exploration. A number express the need to know further and more definitely what the problem was. In this vein, suggestions included:

A. A history of the job roster to be done by Liz Dickinson and Janette Neal.
B. An analysis of the current job situation for women in libraries.

C. Questions to be answered: Do we want to focus on job getting at all levels? Do we want to focus on what happens on the job? Do we want to focus on compensation on the job? Do we want to focus on job formats?

D. Thoughts on possible audiences
   1. Beginning librarians - greatest need probably exists here but that is due to the tight job market and there probably isn't much the Task Force can do about it. Maybe we should direct our attention towards middle and upper level positions, where the need is less, but we can be more effective.

E. Results from the Job Roster Survey indicate that the problem is not finding out about jobs, but getting women hired for them.

II. Actions. Many had ideas about possible actions.
A. Job definition which relates directly to intended audience.
   1. Initial employment
      Actions: career counseling in library schools, program at ALA possibly in conjunction with OLPR, workshops on resume writing and interviewing skills, party/meeting for library school job hunters to provide a chance to meet people
   2. Promotion (for experienced librarians who want to or have to stay in the same library)
      Actions: career counseling, workshops on how promotions from within work, EEOC and Affirmative Action as it applies to promotion, experience sharing session
   3. Job change - lateral (for experienced librarians who aren't interested in moving up but want change)
      Actions: experience sharing session at ALA
   4. Job change - advancement (for experienced librarians on the way up)
      Actions: experience sharing at ALA, contact network proposed by women in administration, advertising jobs as in roster, advanced career development sessions

B. Plan to distribute salary statistics at ALA
C. Have OLPR survey of sources at SRRT Task Force meetings
D. Have Task Force on Women people at job comfort station
E. Tie into or formalize the old girl network
F. Devise a formal network of Task Force on Women members in various regions who are willing to act as resource people for jobs in their area or can offer job counseling
G. Develop a resource listing of women librarians with counseling skills

More on this subject to be discussed at the Task Force business meetings.
