Multicultural Programs for Teens and Tweens
Edited by Linda R. Alexander and Nohyun Kwon for the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA)
A one-stop resource that encourages children and young adults to explore different cultures, this book includes 50 flexible programming ideas allowing you to choose a program specific to your scheduling needs, create an event that reflects a specific culture, and recommend further resources to tweens and teens interested in learning more.

Implementing for Results: Your Strategic Plan in Action
Sandie Nelson for the Public Library Association (PLA)
For nearly two decades, the Public Library Association’s Results Series has been a definitive resource for practical everyday management. This latest addition to the series offers the tips and tools needed to put your strategic plan into action.

Quick and Popular Reads for Teens
Edited by Pam Spencer Holloway for the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA)
For over 10 years YALSA has produced two annual lists, Popular Paperbacks for Young Adults and Quick Picks for Reluctant Readers, consisting of recommended reading targeted at young adults who are not avid readers. This helpful resource compiles bibliographic information about the books honored by these two selected lists. Make choosing titles for teens fun, quick, and easy!

HOW CAN I TELL WHICH CATEGORIES EACH NEW BOOK IS IN?

3 EASY WAYS:
Look on the "New Titles from ALA" section of the ALA Editions catalog each time a new catalog is issued. In the specifications for each new title, you will see the line: “Approval Plan Category.”

Look on the Approval Plan Bulletin that is mailed to each Approval Plan Member twice a year (each time a new catalog is released). The letter codes you signed up for are on your mailing label. Visit us online at www.alastore.ala.org.

• Click on the Approval Plan Information Starburst
• Click on the link for the New Fall/Winter 2009 ALA Approval Plan

Questions about your approval plan?
Contact Katharine Fronek at kfronk@ala.org

WHAT CATEGORY AM I IN?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category A</th>
<th>Category B</th>
<th>Category C</th>
<th>Category D</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>$35 or less intended for all public libraries/librarians</td>
<td>$35 or less intended for academic libraries/librarians</td>
<td>$35 or less intended for elementary school libraries/librarians</td>
<td>$35 or less intended for all libraries/librarians</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Approval Plan Bulletin is distributed each season to announce new titles that are in the ALA Editions Approval Plan. For questions or to report delayed or incomplete shipments, and change of address, contact ALA Editions’ marketing coordinator at 1-800-545-2433 ext. 2427.

IN YOUR APPROVAL PLAN

TO ORDER BOOKS NOT INCLUDED IN YOUR APPROVAL PLAN

Call toll-free
1-866-SHOP ALA
8am–6pm EST
www.alastore.ala.org
1-770-280-4155
mail
ALA Order Fulfillment
P.O. Box 923501
Atlanta, GA 31193-2501

WHAT ALA PUBLICATIONS CAN I ORDER?

• ALA Survey of Librarian Salaries (published annually)*
• ALA Survey of Librarian Salaries, Non-MLS (published annually)*
• Books in the “ACRL Publications in Librarianship” series
• Select, outstanding books for all libraries promoting professional excellence
• PA All ACRL (Association for College and Research Libraries) publications
• P All publications in the ACRL “Trends and Statistics” series
• PC ACRL “Clip Notes”
• U PLA’s “Public Library Data Service Statistical Report”
• UP All PLA (Public Library Association) publications
• H All ALCTS publications

2008 ALA-APA Salary Survey: Librarian—Public and Academic Jenifer Grady and Denise M. Davis
Useful for librarians seeking employment in academic and public libraries, and for library directing staff with this report summarizes salaries paid as of February 1, 2008, to staff in six position categories: directors/deans, associate/assistant directors, department heads, managers of support staff, librarians who do not supervise and begining librarians.

The Desk and Beyond: Next Generation Reference Services
Edited by Sarah K. Steiner and M. Leslie Madden
Librarians are already attempting to “go where the users are,” so what are the next steps in reaching professional excellence? Over the years academic librarians have continued to explore new and innovative service methods: some small-scale, others sweeping. This book provides a thorough exploration of the present and possible future applications of eleven of the most promising new reference delivery methods.
Guide to Developing a Library Music Collection
R. Michael Fling
This book introduces the novice music selector to the patchwork of vendors’ and publishers’ announcements, databases, catalogs, publications lists, bibliographies, and Web resources useful in building a library’s music collection. Brief histories of music in libraries, music study and scholarship, music publishing and recording are followed by description and evaluation of selection tools and resources (current and retrospective) for all relevant formats.

More Family Storytimes: Twenty-four Creative Programs for All Ages
Bob Reid
This new book from bestselling author Bob Reid features stories, fingerplays, songs, and movement activities to enhance the time families spend at the library. Brimming with all new material, More Family Storytimes offers practical, creative, and active storytime programs that will captivate audiences of all ages!

Public Libraries and Internet Service Roles: Measuring and Maximizing Internet Services
Charles R. McClure and Paul T. Jaeger
This resource will help you measure and maximize library service through Internet services and analyze new and unique Internet-enabled service—expanding on the services and analyze new and unique Internet-enabled service—expanding on the Web 2.0 environment. The book is designed to help all areas of library staff, from webmasters to department heads, get the most from their library’s digital services.

Creating the Customer-Driven Academic Library
Jeannette Woodward
The trailblazing strategies in this resource will help you integrate technology to meet today’s student and faculty needs. This new edition has been updated to include information not only on Web 2.0 tools but also includes strategies to match customer expectations, and create new and effective promotional materials. You are faced with marketing to a generation of students who log on rather than walk in and this cutting edge book supplies the tools needed to keep customers coming through the door.

Protecting Intellectual Freedom in Your School Library
Pat R. Scales for the Office for Intellectual Freedom
Pat Scales, with the Office for Intellectual Freedom, offers this new edition of his intellectual freedom title tailored to the school library setting. This easy-to-use book presents a wealth of information and case studies that provide narrative treatment of common situations and conflicting ideas. It is a must-have for school librarians and other educators in the K-12 environment. The new Case Studies section provides a wealth of information and resources for librarlans and others when they first hear a picture book being read aloud.

Fundamentals of Collection Development and Management, 2nd Edition
Peggy Johnson
This fully updated revision addresses the art in controlling and updating your library’s collection. Each chapter offers complete coverage of one aspect of collection development, including suggestions for further reading and a narrative case study exploring the issue. Johnson offers a comprehensive tour of this essential discipline and situates the fundamental ideas of collection development and management in historical and theoretical perspective, bringing this modern classic fully up to date.

Storytime Magic: 400 Fingerplays, Flannelboards, and Other Activities
Kathy MacWilliam and Christine Kirkor
Enriching and supplementing storytelling programs with fingerplays, flannelboards, and other props will be a cinch thanks to this generous sampling of art and craft ideas, songs, and action rhymes. A unique addition to the programming shelf, this treasure trove of storytime tools is designed to help veteran librarians refresh and revitalize ongoing programs, while providing novice storytime planners what they need to get started!