Videocassette of '75 Conference Session Now Available

A 3/4" videocassette of the ALA San Francisco Conference interdivisional program on "The Library Community and Its Future" which was presented Thursday, July 3, 1975, is now available. Sponsored by the ASLA/AASL/ACRL/HRLSD and PLA divisions of the American Library Association, the program featured Alphonse F. Trezza, Executive Director of the National Commission on Libraries and Information Science, who presented the final report of the National Commission and plans for implementation. Mr. Trezza's talk was followed by a panel of reactors by type of library: Mark Baer (special) Richard Dougherty (academic), Bernard Franchowiak (school), and Allie Beth Martin (public).

The Association of State Library Agencies has made this tape available for loan. To request a loan of the videotape, contact Barratt Wilkins, Assistant Director, State Library of Florida, Supreme Court Building, Tallahassee, Florida 32304.
