

LIRT Conference Program -- 1998

Teaching the Teaching Librarian

Plan now to attend and participate in the Library Instruction Round Table (LIRT) Program
during the ALA Annual Meeting, Washington, DC
on Sunday, June 28, 1998, at 9:30 a.m.
Washington Hilton and Towers -- International Ballroom East

The Library Instruction Round Table cordially invites you to attend its 1998 Program. LIRT members are dedicated to equipping librarians to teach in an increasingly electronic era. This program will present three cutting-edge representatives from the field to explore continuing education opportunities for library instructors working in all types of libraries. LIRT is pleased to announce the following speakers:

Cerise Oberman

Dean of Library and Information Services at the State University of New York at Plattsburgh

Cerise will address her contributions to the National Information Literacy Institute (<http://www.ala.org/acrl/nili/nilihp.html>) (NILI).

Lynn Westbrook

Assistant Professor, School of Library and Information Studies, Texas Woman's University

Lynn will discuss how library school curricula can prepare the next generation of library instructors.

Linnea Dudley

Reference Librarian, Marygrove College

Linnea will speak about PREMIER, a Michigan Library Association (<http://www.mla.lib.mi.us/index.htm>) Information Literacy Round Table project that promotes statewide peer support for instruction librarians.

Be sure to mark your calendars and check this site later--additional information will be added as it becomes available. A summary (</rt/sites/ala.org/rt/files/content/confsummary1998.pdf>) of the program, prepared by Phillip Jones, is now available,
