ANGLO-AMERICAN CATALOGUING RULES, SECOND EDITION: CORRECTIONS

Subsequent to publication, some typographical errors have been discovered in the second edition of the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules. Most are very minor and do not affect understanding or application of the rules. A few are considered of immediate importance, however. The following rules should read as below, and not as printed in the published text:

1.1G2.

If, in an item lacking a collective title, no one part predominates, record the titles of the individually titled parts in the order in which they are named in the chief source of information, or in the order in which they appear in the item if there is no single chief source of information. Separate the titles of the parts by semicolons if the parts are all by the same person(s) or body (bodies), even if the titles are linked by a connecting word or phrase. If the individual parts are by different persons or bodies, or in case of doubt, follow the title of each part by its parallel titles, other title information, and statements of responsibility and a full stop followed by two spaces.

21.2A. Definition

Consider a title proper to have changed if:

- 1) any change occurs in the first five words (other than an initial article in the nominative case.)

add one--Cataloguing Rules

(The remainder of the rule is correct as printed, "words" appears as "works" in the text.)

24.24B. Armed forces below the national level

Enter armed forces that are controlled by governments below the national level as subheadings of the heading for such governments.

(The second and third paragraphs of the rule, and all examples, are errors as printed.)

All errors noted up to the time will be corrected in the first reprint of AACR2. Any purchaser of the rules who wishes to receive a list of all corrections in content noted to date should send a stamped, self-addressed envelope marked "AACR2 ERRATA" to the appropriate publisher (American Library Association, Canadian Library Association, or The Library Association) whose address appears on the verso of the AACR2 title leaf.
