FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 1978

The Grolier National Library Week Grant of $1,000 is again available to the state library association that submits the best plans for a public relations program for the coming year.

The annual grant from the American Library Association is contributed by the Grolier Educational Corporation to increase the visibility of libraries and to stimulate interest in National Library Week activities.

Applications must be submitted by December 15, 1978 to the ALA Public Information Office. They will be evaluated by the National Library Week Committee and the recipient will be announced during the ALA Midwinter Meeting, January 7-12, 1979. Application guidelines have been mailed to all state association presidents. For further information, contact the ALA Public Information Office, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611.
